Hot dog! That's excellent Jennifer—52 people in less than 2 days. Good to hear. We will be putting a news release out mid week next week (hopefully) giving this even more public notice.

Thanks for the update.

Respectfully Deb, I would rather not do that. The EventBrite page is up and running. We all had plenty of time to review and edit it before it went up. I don't think we need to take her time asking her to edit it again. I also would rather not display this information. Jen has graciously agreed to update us periodically. That will be good enough.

Checking DEP calendars, and assuming we would want a good idea of how many people to expect, these are some dates that would work for us:

Wednesday, May 24 between 1:00 and 3:00 pm

Thursday, May 25 same time frame

Friday, May 26 between 9:00 and 11:00 am

Do any of these work for the rest of you? I'm thinking an hour call at the most?

Thank you all for getting this up and running. Also a big thank you to Frank for the presentation to the Steering Committee. Do we need to regroup and see where we are in a week or so? I am thinking the Secretary's presentation and mine might change some based on input received, but the overall plan still looks good. Maybe another conference call right around the registration deadline?

Jennifer—is there any way to remind people to read through all materials on the confirmation email they receive? I have a feeling people will just register up front, and not read all the good info on the Eventbrite invite. If possible, could the following text be added to the Eventbrite ticket confirmation email?

Hi Kristen, your order confirmation is attached. In order to prepare for this meeting, it is recommended that you click on the link below and read through all of the materials provided.

Good morning Jennifer—everything looks good. To solve the title issue, how about we shorten the title to, “PA Phase III Watershed Improvement Plan Kickoff & Listening Session” ? Then we can have the full spelled out title in the body of the text of the invite as it appears now.

Thanks

Kristen

Hi—I just made the requested updates. The event is live but I have not switched it to “public” yet. You should be able to view through the previous link I sent.

Here is the URL, let me know if you cannot access:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/pennsylvanias-phase-3-watershed-improvement-plan-public-kickoff-and-listening-session-tickets-34072638178>

One thing that needs to be addressed before it is public: there is a character limit for the title. As the title currently is, it is 12 characters too long. If you click the event, you will see that it says “Pennsylvania’s Phase 3 Watershed Improvement Plan: Public Kickoff and...” (cuts off “Listening Session”). How do you want to this addressed? We will need to take part of the title out so it does exceed the character limit.

I have addressed all the other changes that Frank and Deborah sent. Please take another look and let me know if there anything else and I will change it. I think we can go live on Monday, if there are no or just a few more changes!

Thanks for providing the link, Jen. I'd like to suggest a few editorial recommendations. Our goal is broad public consumption of this information. This page will be linked to in press releases, on the DEP web site, on DEP social media accounts, throwing the door wide open, wanting any Pennsylvanian at all to come to this page and register. Some basic editorial changes will help make this info more immediately clear to a broad public audience:

1. Top right corner: Let's omit the occluding "WIP" acronym and the roman numeral "III," which is too academic for public communication, and use something more open, like "Pennsylvania's Phase 3 Watershed Improvement Plan: Public Kickoff and Listening Session." (Nicki, are you intentionally not saying "Chesapeake Bay Watershed"?). Yes it's wordy, but it's all out in the open. Using internal acronyms that relatively few people know about can come across as obstructive.

2. In the event author line, just say, "by Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection." In terms of public communication purposes, DEP is the owner and leader of this event. Frank and team are facilitators. In the box at the bottom, we can say something like,

Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection

Organizer of ..... Listening Session

For more information about this event, contact Nicki Kasi, DEP Chesapeake Bay Program Office, at xxxxxxxx.

For more information about the Open Space process, contact Frank Dukes at xxxxxxxx.

Subject: RE: Agenda for Phase III Summit June 5

Hi—I just sent the EventBrite to each of you for review. Please note a few things as you review:

- The page is currently live, but it is PRIVATE so we can internally discuss and make changes. When it goes live, I will change it to a PUBLIC meeting.
- I was looking for different ways to add attachments to the EventBrite page, but it does not allow that feature. We may need to come up with another solution. For right now, I have included a note in the registration confirmation email that “additional information will be emailed to registered attendees within the week prior to the session.” Please let me know if this is the language you would like included, or something else.
- Please check the form for ANY changes you would like made, formatting, spacing, text size. Within EventBrite, there are not as many options as Word (ex: there is no underline available), but we can make other adjustments to draw the eye to specific sections. I also have to manually do tabs and spacing, so if anything is even slightly off, please let me know. I will do my best to make ANY changes you all want, please send me your comments!

I am also happy to do a WebEx so we can all look through the page and edit it together. Once we have this ready to go, I can make it live and you can promote!

Thank you,
Jen

Good afternoon Frank and Jennifer—we have received approval to open up registration for the summit on June 5. Can you please use this version of the agenda (attached and watermarked draft)? Also, please hold off on posting the PPT I sent in an earlier email. Can we review the EventBrite notice prior to it going live?

Thanks very much--

Just following up with you. This looks like a go. I am going to run this up the chain of command today with the hopes of getting approval to share the more public version you also provided to us with the Steering Committee on May 8. Game plan is to also start the registration with the more public version next week. Will keep you posted. The steering committee agenda on May 8 calls for Frank to present this agenda around 1:30, but if you could be available from the start at 1:00 just in case things go more quickly that would be wonderful.
